

01 WHO YOU ARE FOR

The specific person or role. Not "everyone". A real person you can picture.

02 THE ALTERNATIVE

What they use today instead of you. Often not who you think it is.

03 THE CATEGORY

The frame your customer uses to evaluate you. Get this right.

04 THE TRIGGER

The pain or aspiration that makes them start looking.

05 YOUR WEDGE

The one sharp way you are different. Pick one. The one that matters most.

06 THE PROOF

Evidence the wedge is real. Pick the proof that is hardest to fake.

07 WHAT YOU ARE AGAINST

Customers, products, revenue you are choosing to say no to.

08 ONE-SENTENCE POSITION

Boil it all into one sentence. If your team cannot repeat it, none of it is sharp enough.
